1. Information on Subject's most recent stay in Munich (29 August until 6 September 1964) was obtained from CALLIEAK coverage on [ ] with whom Subject was in close contact during his Munich visit. Attachment 1 (hereinafter) contains the results of this coverage. Part of this information was reported to Bonn by cable. 2. CALLIEAK coverage showed that Subject knew Identities-1 through -4, who helped make arrangements for him during his stay in Munich. Identity-2 accompanied him on the tour of West Germany after leaving Munich. At Subject's request, [ ] introduced Subject to Identity-5 in May, 1964. Subject requested that [ ] introduce Subject to Identity-6 during the September trip to Munich, but it is not known if this introduction took place. Identity-3 knows Identity-6 and his wife (Identity-7) fairly well. (KBB interest in Identity-6 was indicated in DPPA-163496, 6 April 1964.) 3. Subject was in touch with Identities-8 through -10 during this stay in West Germany. A recording of one of his conversations with Identity-8 is forwarded as Attachment 3 for Chief, SR, only. [ ] [ ] [ ] Agreement [ ] [ ] [ ]

ATTACHMENT INFORMATION

29 August 1964 - Subject was scheduled to arrive in Munich by train from Cologne at 0700. He planned to travel alone. [ ] intended to meet him at the train station and escort him to his hotel. [ ] reserved a room for him at the Hotel Stachus (Mayerstr. 5), the same hotel in which Subject stayed during his May, 1964, trip to Munich (reported in DDPA-19254, 8 July 1964). Subject occupied Room 411 at the Stachus (a single room), next door to the prominent Soviet scientist, Leonid Ivanovich Sedov.

30 August 1964 - Subject was invited to have breakfast with [ ] and family.

30 August - 5 September - Subject attended some sessions of the XI International Congress on Theoretical and Applied Physics. Although he was not an official delegate to the congress, IDENTITY-3 issued a congress pass and identification badge to him so that he could move freely at the congress.

2 September 1964 - Subject attended a reception in honor of the Soviet delegation to the congress at [ ] home.

6 September 1964 - Subject left Munich by bus early in the morning with the Soviet tourist group. IDENTITY-2 accompanied the group for a tour of Bonn, Cologne, Dusseldorf, Hanover, and Hamburg.

10 September 1964 - Subject and the group of Soviet tourists for which he was responsible were scheduled to leave Hamburg by train at 1800, arriving in East Berlin (Friedrichstr.) at 2207. (NOTE: As reported in DDPA-0705, the group was originally scheduled to arrive in West Berlin at 1300 on 12 September. The reason for their change in plans is not known.)
